■ FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

As Catholics we are required by our faith to be fully involved as citizens in this country. On November 6, the day of elections, we should make every effort to inform ourselves of the positions of various candidates and vote with an informed conscience. I have listed several points from a document entitled Faithful Citizenship by our American Bishops. I hope you will find some of these points helpful.

As a nation we share many blessings and strengths, including a tradition of religious freedom and political participation. However, as a people we face serious challenges that are both political and moral. This has always been so and as Catholics we are called to participate in public life in a manner consistent with the mission of our Lord, a mission that He has called us to share.

The Church does not tell Catholics how to vote, but serious Christians often face difficult choices about how to vote. This is why it is so important to vote according to a well-formed conscience that perceives the proper relationship among moral goods. A Catholic cannot vote for a candidate who favors a policy promoting an intrinsically evil act, such as abortion, racist behavior, euthanasia, assisted suicide, deliberately subjecting workers or the poor to subhuman living conditions, or redefining marriage in ways that violate its essential meaning if the voter's intent is to support that position.

There may be times when a Catholic who rejects a candidate's unacceptable position even on policies promoting an intrinsically evil act may reasonably decide to vote for that candidate for other morally grave reasons. Voting in this way would be permissible only for truly grave moral reasons, not to advance narrow interest or partisan preferences or to ignore a fundamental evil.

When all candidates hold a position that promotes an intrinsically evil act, the conscientious voter faces a dilemma. The voter may decide to take the extraordinary step of not voting for any candidate or, after careful deliberation, may decide to vote for the candidate deemed less likely to advance such a morally flawed position and more likely to pursue other authentic human goods.

Fr. James Billinger

■ PARISH LIFE

"FULLY ALIVE AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES"

"Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." This statement from today's gospel might be a wakeup call to each and every one of us. It is nearly time for us to recommit our gifts of time, talent, and treasure for the coming year. How is Jesus calling you to do so? And how will you respond? The blind man in this gospel passage desperately wants to see, and he knows that Jesus can heal him. He has great faith! However, the people around him rebuke him for calling out to Jesus and make him feel unworthy. How often does the world do this to us? We should encourage one another to call out to Jesus - we should all be blessed with the gift of sight that only He can provide! In the coming week, find a moment of silence when you can shut out the noise of the world and listen for Jesus' call. And may you respond with the same enthusiasm as the man in the Gospel: "He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus."
