FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

1. Built of Living Stones Project

We are making steady progress on the building of the new school and Church. We still believe we will have the school ready for the beginning of the 2019 school year, which begins on or around August 21. We are building this project on faith, faith that everyone will do what they pledged they would do. If the pledges are honored, we will be able to finance this project in a timely way. I realize that this kind of giving extends beyond the ordinary sacrificial giving of tithing, but many, many people will profit from the new facilities. Thank you for your love of Holy Savior Parish! We truly are a blessed parish. God is good...all the time!!

2. Generations of Faith

We will host our Advent Generations of Faith Program on Wednesday, November 28, beginning with dinner at 6:30 PM. All parishioners are invited to this special program on living a stewardship way of life, which will be provided by Fr. Jarrod Lies. All school families are required to have one parent attend, and all junior high students through 12th grade are required to attend with at least one of the parents so that we can fill out the annual parish/family agreement form.

Fr. James Billinger

PARISH LIFE

"FULLY ALIVE AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES"

We have a saying that "all good things must come to an end." As we prepare for Advent, we must note that our church year has come to an end. The apocalyptic nature of today's readings should cause us to reflect on this ending. Mark's Gospel tells us we will "see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky." I think most of us agree that we want to be part of this "elect" that Mark mentions. How do we ensure that we are marked for that day? We begin with baptism, which is a public declaration of our acceptance of Jesus Christ as the Son of God and as our redeemer. But we have to remember the words of the apostle Paul: Faith without works is dead. In baptism we are called into a life of discipleship. We are called to live out our faith in every word and deed of every day. Next week we celebrate commitment Sunday, when you will have an opportunity to recommit yourself as a disciple of Jesus Christ. Take a quiet moment this week to reflect on the end of this liturgical year and the beginning of a new one. How will you allow yourself to become fully alive in discipleship in the coming year?

HOLY SAVIOR COMMEMORATIVE CHRISTMAS ORNAMENTS

The Peace & Social Justice Committee is selling commemorative Holy Savior Christmas ornaments to raise money for the parish's social justice programs. Orders will be taken after each Mass through Sunday, Nov. 25. The ornaments, which feature a detailed drawing of our new church, are $10 each. Orders must be prepaid. Cash, check, credit or debit cards will be accepted for payment.

THANK YOU AND GOD BLESS YOU

Mrs. Hazel Bias would like to take this opportunity to thank Holy Savior Parishioners for your prayers, thoughts, and condolences with regards to the passing of her sister Joan Williams.

PARISH FAMILY MOVIE NIGHT
